Defendants.

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file confidential information under seal.

2. "CONFIDENTIAL" MATERIAL

"Confidential" material shall include the following documents and tangible things produced or otherwise exchanged:

- Claim file documents which reflect or refer to rate information, reserves, attorney-client privileged communications, or work product relating to the defense of Rushforth, and/or other competitive business information.
- Documents reflecting insurer procedures and guidelines.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony,

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential
2 material.

3 However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is 4 in the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

5 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

6 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed or 7 produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting,
8 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. A party's disclosure of confidential material
9 pursuant to this agreement shall not waive such party's privileges, immunities, or protections
10 that would otherwise apply to such material. Confidential material may be disclosed only to the 11 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential
12 material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner
13 that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

14 4.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered 15 by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any 16 confidential material only to:

17 (a) the receiving party's counsel of record in this action, as well as employees of counsel
18 to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

19 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel), excess insurers,
20 regulators, auditors, reinsurers, retrocessionaires, and brokers of the receiving party to whom
21 disclosure is reasonably necessary, unless the parties agree that a particular document or material
22 produced is for Attorney's Eyes Only and is so designated;

23 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation
24 and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

25 STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

C17-1063-JCC

1 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

2 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 3 confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service
4 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately
5 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

6 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably
7 necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit
8 A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of 9 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential material must 10 be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted
11 under this agreement;

12 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or 13 other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

14 (h) any other party as required by law.

15 4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 16 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party 17 to determine whether the designating party will remove the confidential designation, whether 18 the document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal or stipulation and proposed order is 19 warranted. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the 20 standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under 21 seal.

22 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

23 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party or 24 non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take

25 STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

C17-1063-JCC

1 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate
2 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material,
3 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the 4 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not
5 swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

6 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 7 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 8 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary
9 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

10 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated 11 for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other 12 parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

13 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 14 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 15 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must 16 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

17 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and 18 deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial
19 proceedings), the designating party must affix the word "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that 20 contains confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies 21 for protection, the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by 22 making appropriate markings in the margins).

23 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties and 24 any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other pretrial

1 proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other
2 testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after 3 receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the 4 transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party desires to protect 5 confidential information at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference.

6 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place on the 7 exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word
8 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, 9 the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

10 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 11 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party’s
12 right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a 13 designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is 14 treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

15 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

16 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 17 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party’s confidentiality 18 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 19 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 20 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 21 original designation is disclosed.

22 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
23 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding 24 confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or 25

1 in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer
2 conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action.
3 The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith
4 effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

5 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
6 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under 7 Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of 8 persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those 9 made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 10 other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to 11 maintain the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

12 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
13 LITIGATION

14 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
15 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that 16 party must:

17 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the subpoena
18 or court order;

19 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the 20 other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to 21 this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and

22 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the 23 designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

24 //

1 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

2 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential
3 material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving
4 party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized
5 disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material,
6 (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms
7 of this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the “Acknowledgment
8 and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
10 MATERIAL

11 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 12 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 13 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This 14 provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery
15 order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree 16 to the entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

17 10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

18 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving 19 party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts
20 and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may retain confidential material, while 21 utilizing appropriate methods of maintaining the confidentiality of such material consistently 22 with the requirements of this agreement.

23 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all
24 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence,

1 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert
2 work product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

3 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a
4 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

5 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.
